Topic: “How To Respect Friends, Peers and their Belongings”

The Class Assembly of Class II - C was held on 4 September, 2024 on the topic “How to Respect friends and peers and their belongings”.

The assembly commenced with the Gayatri Mantra followed by the DAV Gaan. The entire proceedings of the assembly were hosted by Zara Hassan and K. Kayal.

The National Pledge was led by Krithik. S and the gathering was welcomed by Ameerah. A.

The students confidently delivered a Speech on the assembly topic demonstrating their understanding of respect and its importance in building strong relationships. They also presented the placards in a well organized way.

The students beautifully enacted a skit on the given theme, emphasizing the importance of respect.

The students’ joyful feet graced the stage with a sparkling dance. The graceful movements symbolized the harmony and understanding that form the foundation of strong relationships.

The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Hannah. The assembly concluded with the National Anthem followed by Shanti Paat.

It was indeed an informative and entertaining programme which brought out the skills of the students. Parents were delighted with their wards’ performances, and shared positive feedback on the program.
