The DAV Movement

Arya Samaj and Dav Movement

Dayanand Anglo Vedic College Trust and Management Society was registered in 1885 after the demise of Swami Dayanand Saraswati in 1883. The society established its first institution DAV School at Lahore on 1st June 1886 with Lala Hansraj. The school provides vibrant learning community dedicated to academic excellence and holistic development. With a diverse student body of 2500 learners, we foster an inclusive and dynamic environment with esteemed faculty, comprising of 90 experienced and passionate educators. The school has successfully completed 7 years and had added some feathers of achievement to its crown. It has received Affiliation for its Senior Secondary level. It offers an educational environment with state-of-the-art facilities and a supportive system. Separate Laboratories for Physics, Chemistry, Biology and Computer are equipped with advanced tools for hands-on experiments, fostering practical learning in science and technology. Our expansive Library provides a vast collection of resources and a quiet space for study and research. The school House System has four houses named Aurobindo, Dayanand, Hansraj and Shraddhanand which promotes teamwork, leadership, and a sense of community through inter-house competitions. DAV College Managing Committee, New Delhi has introduced a common uniform to instill unity, belongingness and oneness.

Mornings begin with a thoughtful assembly that emphasizes core values and community spirit, while our active engagement in social cause events reflects our dedication to societal betterment.

Additionally, our ongoing In-service Training Programmes ensure that our educators remain at the forefront of educational innovation and pedagogical practices.

In a pursuit of excellence in education, we are blessed to be supported by the active involvement and co operation of all stake holders. It extends its hand to the society to transform children into complete human beings, enriched thoughts, warm at heart and awakened in spirit.
