The Electoral Literacy Club of the K.B DAV Senior Secondary Public School conducted On-line Senate elections for the post of Captains and Vice Captains for the Four School Houses today. The Club received an exuberant response from the students of Class IX-XII as 75% of the voters came forward to make the first of its kind-Online Senate Election Campaign a success!

The School children have proved that they are conscientious voters and went through a two-day process, where the nominated candidates first canvassed online through recorded Video-Links shared on the school website, to woo the voter from Class IX to XII. This was followed by a Google Ballot paper containing the names of the candidates in the fry. Finally, the home turned into a Polling Booth on 29th April 2020, during the polling hours of 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

In total, 21 students from four Houses namely Jasmine, Rose. Lotus and Tulip contested for the position of House Captain and 19 students for the position of School Vice-Captain.

The future of these contestants is in the hands of 649 Electorate, out of which 485 utilized their Right to Vote and cast their votes on-line in favour of their favourite candidate. The Electoral Process observed 74.7 % voting. Overall, it was a great learning and enriching experience for one and all.

The Mandate of this experiential learning, through the School Senate Elections, is now awaited.
